Non-Screen Activities
Activity	Helpful tips
Maths – Division <math>16 \div 2 = 8</math> 16 shared equally between 2 gives you 8.         1. <math>63 \div 3 =</math>      6. <math>66 \div 2 =</math>                  2. <math>66 \div 6 =</math>      7. <math>88 \div 8 =</math>                  3. <math>48 \div 4 =</math>      8. <math>62 \div 2 =</math>                  4. <math>82 \div 2 =</math>      9. <math>80 \div 4 =</math>                  5. <math>96 \div 3 =</math>      10. <math>90 \div 3 =</math>	To solve these division calculations, you might want to use sharing (see image). You can also use times tables facts or a written method if you know how.
English This week have a go at writing a summer calligram. A calligram is where the words create an image of the thing you are writing about (see Jellyfish example). Have a look around your garden or your local area when on a walk, and think about the sights and sounds of summer. Then try writing all about what you have noticed in the shape of something summery.	 LindaRobertus
PE This week, work on improving your balancing skills. You might want to use an activity that you already know e.g. balancing on one leg or balancing an object on your head. You could also invent a new activity using household items. How creative can you be?
Reading This week choose a book you know and see if you can design a new front cover for the book. It needs to be bright and colourful and include the title and name of the author.
PSHE/Wellbeing Make a bright and colourful paper chain and write things that relax you on each link. Hang it up in your room and read through your paper chain when you are feeling anxious or worried.
