Maths – Mixed operations 1) <math>68 + 19</math>                      11) <math>11 \times 5</math>            2) <math>90 \div 10</math>                      12) <math>15 \div 3</math>            3) <math>27 + 40</math>                      13) <math>55 - 17</math>            4) <math>54 \div 6</math>                        14) <math>68 + 26</math>            5) <math>77 \div 7</math>                        15) <math>60 \div 6</math>            6) <math>54 + 30</math>                      16) <math>48 - 14</math>            7) <math>3 \times 7</math>                         17) <math>6 \times 7</math>            8) <math>56 + 28</math>                      18) <math>50 - 12</math>            9) <math>94 - 45</math>                      19) <math>30 \div 10</math>            10) <math>58 + 26</math>                    20) <math>34 + 49</math>	You will need to think about your written strategies for addition, subtraction and division to complete these calculations. Multiplication questions can all be done mentally!
Writing – Limericks  Have a go at writing a summer limerick this week. The funnier the better!	Try and follow the AABBA rhyming pattern before working on the rhythm of the limerick.
PE This week have a go at perfecting your jumping skills. We would have been looking at athletics and jumps such as standing long jump, vertical jump and even hurdles. Choose a skill to try and improve on throughout the week.	You might want to keep a record of your distance jumped each day to track your progress.
Reading This week have a go at writing a new blurb for your book. The blurb is the writing usually found on the back of a book's cover that tells the reader what the story will be about. Remember, you need to make the reader excited but be careful not to give too much of the story away.
PSHE/Wellbeing Draw a huge star and write all of your talents inside of it. Then decorate your star as wildly as possible!
